SUBJECT: Council Role in Emergency Management

---

Background:

The City of Faribault has had its fair share of emergencies and disasters. The organizational structure that is in place in our City allows us to navigate through various disasters in a very efficient, safe and proven manner. Training of all individuals involved is important in all four realms of disasters: Preparedness, Response, Recovery, and Mitigation.

Training of our City Council in their roles in disasters is an important step in the preparedness realm to ensure that we, the City, serve our citizens the best we can in the event of a disaster or large-scale emergency. This discussion will lay out the Council's roles in disasters.
