St. Patty’s Safety

With St. Patrick’s Day festivities a week away, Chief O’Bohlen, Chief O’Nelson and Sheriff O’Dunn ask everyone to celebrate safely. As part of Rice County’s Toward Zero Deaths efforts, our CLEO Trio asks you to designate o’driver or call a cab to ensure you get home safely. Please plan ahead and don’t depend on the luck o’ the Irish to be safe. Extra officers will be hitting the streets to watch for those overindulging leprechauns.

Crime Free Multi Housing Training

Our latest Crime Free Multi Housing Landlords Training was held on Wednesday, March 1st. We hosted 24 rental property owners and managers to learn about the city’s ordinances and how to be a more effective landlord. To date, we have provided training to about 180 rental owners and managers. These events are coordinated by CSO Supervisor Doug Delesha, Sergeant Mark Krenik and Officer John Gramling.

Congratulations to Officer Said Hilowle and his wife on the birth of a daughter!

On Friday, March 3rd, Captain Neal Pederson was a presenter for South Central College’s Career Exploration Day. Different presenters met with approximately 90 ninth-grade students to give them a brief overview into their respective career fields.

Our sympathies to our Light Duty Custodian Paul Caron and his family on the loss of his mother-in-law after an extended illness.

Also on Monday, Cub Scout Pack 310 stopped by the police department to honor us with their “Hometown Heroes” popcorn donation. Officers Mike Thul & K9 Chase, John Pesta, Keith Voegel and Sergeant Eric Sammon took time to meet with the scouts.

March is Minnesota FoodShare Month, so we will be holding a “Stuff A Squad” food drive to benefit the Faribault Food Shelf. Mark your calendars for Saturday, March 18th. We will be at HyVee from 10am - 12noon, and Fareway Foods from 1pm - 3pm. You can drop off your non-perishable or canned food donations and help “stuff” one of our squads.
