Be sure to say hello to our staff working at Heritage Days this week. Please be aware of the change in the parade route due to road construction. The parade will begin at 13th Street

Things We Don't See Everyday

A citizen brought this partial human skull to us a couple of weeks ago. The citizen stated the skull had been found at their family cabin on Lake of the Woods in approximately 1959. The citizen was concerned because the skull displayed a hole in the back. As the cabin was on the Canadian side of the border, Captain David Dillon worked with Canadian authorities and provided photographs to them. Their forensic scientists determined that the skull was an old anatomical specimen common in anatomy labs. They further explained the hole was used to mount the specimen to a wall or case.

Sexual Assault Arrest

On May 5th, Officer Sean Smallen met with a juvenile female victim and her grandmother. The victim reported that she had been sexually assaulted by the suspect four times over the previous month. Detective Ben Johns picked up the investigation, assisted by Detectives Brittany Carstensen, Matt Kolling and DJ Skluzacek. They spoke with several witnesses who corroborated the victim's report. The suspect, Bradley

Meyer, 29, was eventually located and arrested. He declined to speak with detectives. Meyer was charged with 1st degree Criminal Sexual Conduct (two counts) and 3rd degree Criminal Sexual Conduct (two counts). His bail was set at $25,000 with conditions.
