OUR OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ON WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 25TH FOR CHRISTMAS.

HOPE for Christmas

Again this year, our department, along with the Rice County Sheriff's Office and Northfield Police Department partnered with HOPE Center to adopt families for Christmas. Instead of delivering gifts to families, we met with parents and kiddos at Our Savior's to distribute the gifts. Chief Andy Bohlen and Captain Neal Pederson joined with Sheriff Troy Dunn, Sergeant Paul LaRoche, Deputy Aaron Snyder, Assistant Jail Administrator Stephanie Duh-

me, Correctional Officer Randy Hanson, and Northfield Officers Scott Carlson and Champagne Eiklenborg worked with advocates to help bring a little Christmas cheer to the families.

“The growth and development of people is the highest calling of leadership.”

Ho Ho Hobo

On Wednesday, December 18th, Officers Scott Duncan, Bill Considine, and State Troopers Eric LaBere and Patric Ignaszewski responded to a report of a man hanging underneath a semi truck leaving Speedway. The truck was located and stopped just north of Faribault. Officers found a 33-year-old Seattle man who was riding in the air dam under the trailer. He told officers he travels this way often, and this was the first time he’s ever been caught. While officers were amazed at the danger and risks of riding underneath a semi, the man did not seem to think it was a big deal and was kind of proud about discovering a new way to travel. Ofc. Duncan transported the man to Allina District One Hospital at his request and was released.

Some of our staff were brave enough to show off their Christmas sweaters, ugly or otherwise, for our potluck this week. We wish everyone a safe and Merry Christmas!

Teddy Bears

This week, Don Morrison of Teddy Bear Hugs U once again dropped off some donated teddy bears which officers keep in their squads to give to children in traumatic or upsetting situations. We appreciate their donation!

DWI Enforcement

The holiday season TZD wave is currently underway through December 28. Our officers are joining officers around the state to get impaired drivers off the road. If you are celebrating this season, please take time to arrange for a safe and sober ride home. Be sure to slow down, buckle up, and put the distractions away.
