Domestic Assault Arrest

On Wednesday, November 22nd, Officers Tony Larson, Sean Smallen, Michael Shuda and Ben Johns responded to a domestic assault. On arrival, Ofc. Larson found a woman lying in the driveway calling for help. She identified male standing nearby as her husband and assailant, and he was detained. The victim was attended to until medical personnel arrived. She told Ofc. Larson that her husband had been yelling at her when she attempted to call 911. She stated he took her phone away, and then twice threw her down onto the driveway. After the second assault, she was unable to stand up. The suspect, Michael Schwanke, 48, admitted to taking the phone from his wife but denied any physical assault. A witness nearby told officers that he observed Schwanke “hip toss” the victim to the ground before he called 911. Schwanke was arrested and jailed. The victim was later discovered to have a broken hip from the assault. He was charged with 3rd degree Assault, Interference with an Emergency Call, and Domestic Assault (two counts). Despite a requested bail of $40,000/$20,000, he was released on his own recognizance by Judge Casey Christian.

Over-Exposure

On Friday, November 3rd, Officer Sarah Tollefson took a report of indecent exposure. The witness stated she and her children were in a parking lot of a local store when she heard someone call out to her. She turned and saw a male sitting in a vehicle with his shirt up and apparently masturbating. The male then drove off and the witness followed him and got his license plate. Detective Jeff Burbank located the vehicle owner. The owner told Det. Burbank that he was selling the vehicle to Marte Quintero Espino, 26, and he would have been driving the vehicle on the day of the incident. Det. Burbank interviewed Quintero Espino, who stated he was in a video chat with a female and was not exposing himself to the witness. In checking the phone, Det. Burbank could not find any logs of the video chat, and the suspect stated he had deleted them. A photo of the suspect was shown to the witness, who positively identified him. Quintero Espino was arrested and charged with Indecent Exposure (two counts). His bail was set at $1,000 with conditions.

Heroin Bust

On Wednesday, November 29th, agents of the Cannon River Drug and Violent Offender Task Force arrested Antonio Washington, 33, wrapping up an investigation into heroin trafficking. Over the course of the investigation, an undercover agent purchased just over 22 grams of heroin from Washington for a total of $3300. Immediately following the final sale, agents moved in and arrested Washington and Karen Selden, 28. A subsequent search warrant at their residence yielded two handguns and additional heroin. The agents were assisted by Detective Jeff Burbank, Deputies Paul LaRoche and Justin Hunt, and agents of the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension (BCA). Washington was charged with 1st degree Controlled Substances - Sales. His bail was set at $100,000. Additionally, Washington was charged with Violation of a Domestic Abuse No Contact Order (DANCO) in five unrelated cases, which resulted in a combined additional bail of $25,000 with conditions. Selden was also charged with 1st degree Controlled Substances - Sales, and her bail was set at $100,000. A great effort made by agents in stopping a source of heroin to Rice County!

Our TZD patrols are continuing through the month of December, with a focus on DWI enforcement. Please plan ahead for a sober ride home when attending holiday celebrations to keep the season from become tragic.

Arson Arrest

On Monday, November 27th, Officers Mike Thul, Josh Alexander, Sarah Tollefson, Keith Voegel, Sergeant Mark Krenik and RCSO Deputy Mac Malecha responded to a residence fire. Officers arrived to find a fire on the outside of the residence and smoke on the inside. Faribault Fire Department responded, verified the residence was unoccupied, and extinguished the fire. Firefighters discovered a lighter on the ground, which was recovered by officers. Deputy Fire Marshal Ron Rahman responded to investigate, and found additional evidence indicating the fire had been intentionally started, including a plastic milk jug containing gasoline. Detectives Matt Kolling and Scott Duncan picked up the investigation and identified a possible suspect who had previous disputes with the victim. The detectives discovered video surveillance footage of the suspect purchasing gasoline in a milk jug a short time before the fire. They also learned the recovered lighter bore the initials of the suspect's grandfather. The detectives interviewed Stephen Clendenin, 33, who eventually admitted to starting the fire because he was unhappy with how the victim treated his estranged wife and child. Clendenin was arrested and charged with 1st degree Arson. His bail was set at $10,000 with conditions. This was great work by detectives to clear this case so quickly!
